Father's Reflection : The Babbling Bruch

It is always a happy day when the Bishop comes to the out-posts of the Diocese to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on our young people. So often we take for granted all the work and preparation that parents, sponsors, teachers in the Confirmation Program and Youth Group and Religious Education directors do to help prepare for this Sacrament. Sincere thanks to all.

I have committed myself to witness the Marriage of a nephew this weekend, and so Fr. Jim Tigges will be leading the Worship at St. Malachy's and St. John's. I do believe this will be the last wedding for a niece or nephew that I will commit to witness. I need to learn to say no.

I was very well pleased with both the Pastoral Council meeting and Finance committee meeting this past week at Sacred Heart. In all the parishes I have served in, I have found such good leaders who have stepped forward to use their gifts for the building up of the Kingdom of God. Blessings, blessings, blessings.
